Mem. L. H. & H. Chapman
Dear Sir

My time being so much taken up with my official and other duties that it is impossible for me to devote any part of it any more to my Collection of Coins and Medals which I have been collecting for the past 25 years.

I am seriously contemplating the disposal of the same, but would not sell except in bulk; that is the whole collection together which would thus be available for any public or private Library, School or Museum.

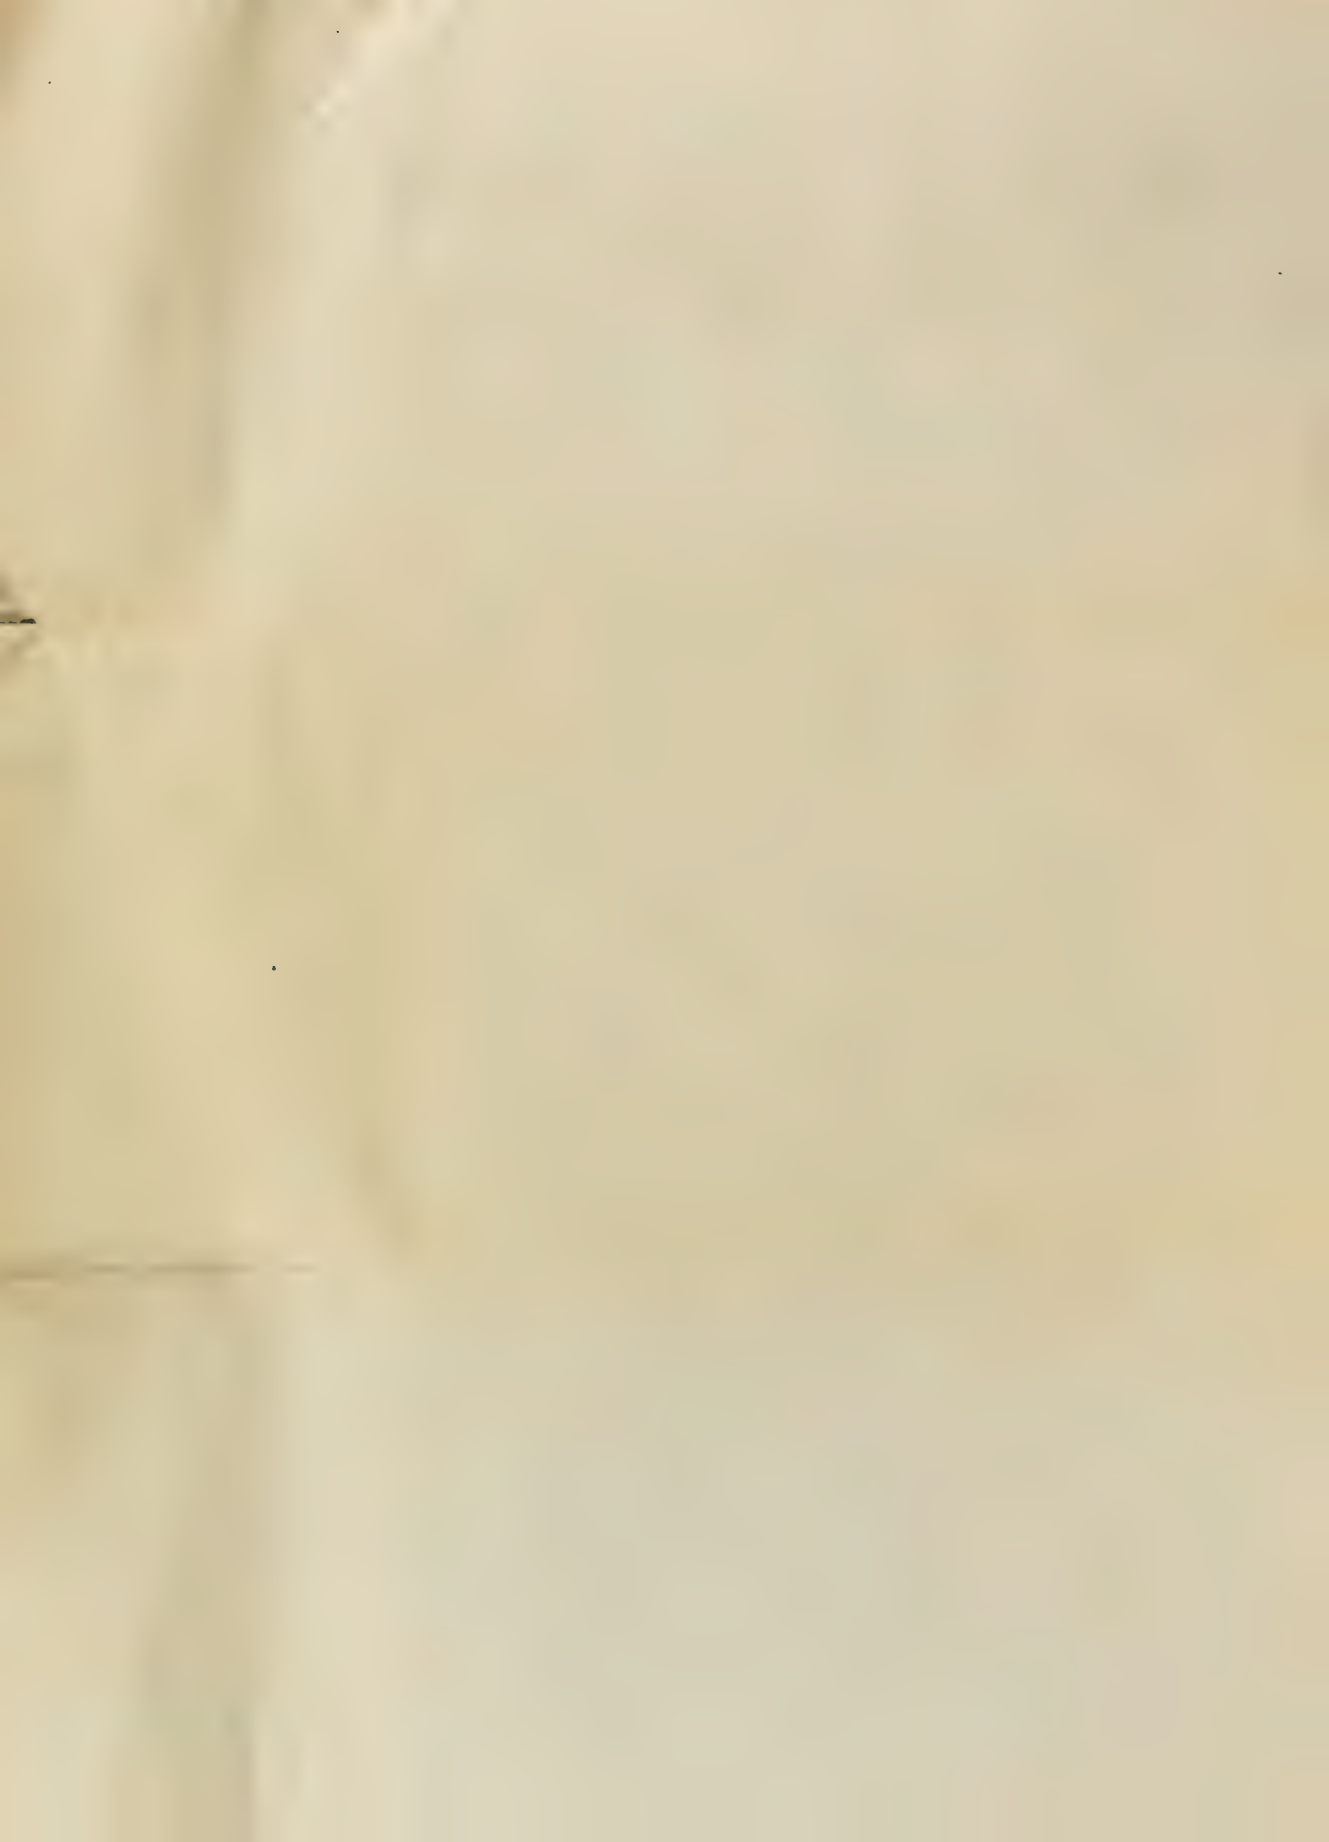

There are over 10000 Coins and Medals in the Collection the Medals being in glass frames and the Coins in Box trays

I will not take less than $27500 for the whole Collection less 10% for Commission

Do you know of any purchaser or can you give me your advice on this subject and oblige

Yours truly

Louis A. Fisse
